Grab the Champagne!

At the beginning of this year, the MV Team had a New Year's wish: to invite MV Stars Sasha de Sade, Kristen Kraves, Courtni Demilune and Mia Maffia to live, work, and get down at the MV Loft. There, we produced the photosets you see in this breakthrough issue of the MV Mag—the first one devoted exclusively to trans MV Stars. By now our MV Stars and fans know how dedicated we are to freedom, free expression and sex positivity. This issue reflects our POV, quite literally to a T!

In Feathers & Leather, cover girl Sasha de Sade opens up about her relationship with her fiancée, Mistress Murmur. Their personal connection fuels their content, and vice versa. Weighing in on the status of trans performers, Sasha de Sade says, "Things have already improved immensely...but there's still progress to be made."

In Merlot Darling, brunette stunner Kristen Kraves likewise sees positive changes: "I know that we are still considered a fetish, but at the same time there are companies changing titles to proper pronouns and that is nice to see."

Next up, a quick whirl at the TEA Show's red carpet—ManyVids was a proud Platinum Sponsor!—and then on to an arousing chat with Courtni Demilune in Tie the Knot. She hasn't been producing content for very long, but nonetheless she wisely advises newbies to focus on work that pays the bills and to experiment from there.

The always-provocative Mia Maffia celebrates the rise of ManyVids, and other trans-friendly sites in Born On Fire. "Performers can create their own work," she says, "and don't have to rely on producers giving them work."

Hear, hear!

Cheers!

We love those twisted ideas that are only possible in cartoons.

1. How did you begin your career in the adult industry?

I actually started out on ManyVids! Around the end of 2016, my fiancée (Mistress Murmur) filmed a few POV clips of her dominating me and we decided to see if we could sell videos to supplement our main income. After a few weeks our sales had taken off and ManyVids sales became enough for us to make the adult industry our sole source of income, with studio shoots and camming on the side to promote our videos. I did my first professional studio shoot with Grooby a couple of months after joining ManyVids and the publicity from working with them was incredible, so I've been happy to continue working with Grooby and other studios alongside our independent productions :)

2. How did you decide on your name? Is it a reference to Marquis de Sade?

Yes! Mistress Murmur helped me with the choice, although I was already familiar with Marquis de Sade's work I hadn't thought of cooperating it into my porn name until she suggested it. I wanted a name that would shout 'fetishist freak', so the name of one of history's most perverted writers seemed perfect.

3. You get really creative in your vids. Where do you draw your ideas from? What are you inspired by?

The themes and ideas for our shoots are a collaborative effort between Mistress Murmur and I—we share a ton of kinks and turn-ons and we’re shamefully shameless, so that gives us a lot of freedom and flexibility in deciding what content to make. We’ve only been shooting for a little over a year, and we’re still working out our style and direction, but I’ve been encouraged by the response to the content we’ve made so far! We’ve only scratched the surface of the kinky ideas we want to share with you and we’re now getting to a position where we have the equipment and experience to deliver studio-quality fetish porn that fully reflects our darkest fantasies. Mistress Murmur and I share a Google document where we write porn scene ideas whenever/wherever they strike us, and it’s about 20 pages long at the moment, so stay tuned...

Some of our main influences are amateur Gonzo porn (the dark dirty shit you see on risqué tube sites), Die Antwoord’s beautifully-ugly music videos (we wish we could be as freaky as them!) and hentai comic books; we love those twisted ideas that are only possible in cartoons, and we live in Japan on-and-off so we have access to a ton of hentai bookstores!

4. Do you have any aspirations in industries other than the adult industry?

I’ve lived in East Asia for seven years but I’m still not fluent in any Asian language, so I’d love to finish learning Japanese and Chinese! Mistress Murmur’s Japanese is pretty good but I still have a long way to go (although I did speak in Japanese throughout one of my videos, available on ManyVids!). I’d also love to get involved in some other creative fields like modelling and non-pornographic video production—I’m going to see what I can do with that the next time I’m living in Japan :)

5. As a trans performer, are there any changes in the adult industry that you'd like to see?

Things have already improved immensely for trans performers but there's still progress to be made. There's a lack of talent willing to work with trans performers, but that situation is improving, and there's very little fucked-up kinky trans-porn produced by major studios, so I'd love to see that change! Grooby has just partnered up with Kink to make a new website together, so I'm excited to see where that leads!

6. Are you more of a dom or a sub, or a switch? And what do you like about being either (or both)?

With girls I'm 100% a switch—I love being on both sides of power play with cis & trans girls. With men I'm far more of a bottom, although I sometimes have a dominant streak if the chemistry with a guy is right. When I'm domming I love seeing the reactions from my partner as I humiliate and use them, and when I bottom I'm all about losing control and becoming a toy for my partner's pleasure ;)

7. Out of all your sexual encounters, do you have one that stands out in your memory as the 'hottest'?

Mistress Murmur and I have done some pretty sinful shit off camera so it's difficult to pick just one, but a memory that stands out right now is the time she dressed me up as a diapered sissy when we were living in Beijing and sent me out alone into the city giving me commands via text message—she had me bend over & flash my diaper in the streets, offer myself to guys in elevators and made me piss myself while standing in a busy shop, and then made me buy a ton of candy that I ate out of her ass as a reward when I got home :)

8. What are your next career milestones?

I've just spent three months filming in the US and worked with some big studios and a ton of amazingly talented people, including some of my TS idols from before I even transitioned from boy to girl, so I just hit a big career milestone and can't wait to see how all my recent work is received as it's released over the next year! I'm going to continue refining the production quality and creative integrity of the videos I make with Mistress Murmur as we've learned a lot from the people we worked with in the US and want to make the most of that. As always, our new videos will be available on ManyVids first!

ManyVids has been my favourite company in the adult industry for a while, and after staying at the MV Loft I feel closer to the MV Family! I also felt privileged to share my time with three fun, talented girls who all became instant friends :) The Loft is such a modern space and the MV staff are all totally dedicated, professional and skilled, so everything about the experience was a pleasure!

1. How and when did your first adult industry experience happen?

One day looking through my messages on Facebook I came across this one message from a hot white bald guy saying “Hello, you are beautiful” (that’s how he recruits). I had to respond and find out more, needless to say before I knew it I was in Las Vegas on November 21, 2016 shooting my first porn scene and the rest was #history.

2. When it comes to partners and dating, what are your preferences?

I love a masculine, confident and respectful man that knows how to take care of me and of course chivalry also goes along way. When it comes to dating, I am old fashioned and love a nice dinner followed up with great sex under the stars. I am primarily a submissive bottom and love to be pampered by my men.

3. What has been your source of motivation and inspiration throughout the duration of your career until this point?

At my age, this industry is not easy let alone starting a new career and being successful. I have always had the fire and now the more I grow and achieve the more it fuels me to keep going.

4. What are your tips on keeping up a healthy and active sex life?

It's important to live and love yourself first. Being confident with your sexuality and of course being a sex worker helps too. I also eat the best Thai I can paired with some regular exercising and just being active in my everyday life.

5. What are your thoughts on trans representation in the industry?

We as transgender performers still have a long way to go with the stigma surrounding the industry. I know that we are still considered a fetish but at the same time there are companies changing titles to proper pronouns and that is nice to see. I can tell you that we are as lucrative and desirable as any other type of mainstream porn.

6. Since you've got into the industry, what changes have you seen, and what changes would you hope to see in the future?

As I mentioned before, seeing companies making changes to embrace proper pronouns is very encouraging but seeing more recognition to more trans performers would also be nice. I would also love to see a TMILF of the year award too ;)

We are as lucrative and desirable as any other type of mainstream porn.

7. If you could give tips to another trans performer starting out, what would you say?

Someone wise told me to slow down, it's not a race! And with that you should be the best you can be and own it! Don't waste time on trying to be something different than what you are, it's a mistake. Stay humble and be kind to other performers even if they are not. I feel with my little experience so far in this industry that it's a safe place and it's up to us as individuals to make the right choices for what we do and whom we associate with along the way.

8. What are your favorite types of sexual adventures?

Spontaneous! Having expectations can easily cloud a good sexual experience. I just love to flow with the moment and see where it takes me!

TIE THE KNOT

1. What was your first adult industry experience like?

The first scene I shot was with this dom from Vancouver named Scott Knight. Very professional, very great first experience. The fact that he was older, looked like my partner's step dad, and had my dad's first name made it a bit funny in retrospect. Great lay though.

2. What turns you off, and what turns you on?

I like to tell people that I can't really cum until I hate myself and am scared for my own safety. Turn offs are long facial hair, desperation and service tops who call themselves switches.

3. Between Western Canada and Eastern Canada, which is your favorite Canada? And why?

Eastern Canada is better, without a doubt. Despite the cold, I prefer the weather here. It's cheaper. I fit the eastern seaboard mentality a lot more. Most importantly though: West coast definitely has a high percentage of hot girls, but EVERYONE out here is hot. Men actually know how to dress and it's actually the hottest thing.

4. Other than making great adult vids, what are your other passions?

My other passions are money, daddies and dick.

5. What is your favorite way to orgasm?

Definitely the best was is to get near the point of being choked out, have him cum on my face, and then slap me in the face right as I start to cum myself back awake.

6. If you could go back to when you first began in the industry, knowing what you know now, is there anything you would've done differently?

Tbh, I only started in the industry like six months ago, so like, probably what I'm about say doesn't have much experience to back it up, so it may be horrible advice but I'd say focus most of your time on what's ALREADY making you money. Between camming, clip sales, shoots, domming, escorting, dancing, etc. there's so many avenues to make money in sex work and it can be super enticing to try like all of them at once. But trying too many at once can mean that you end up neglecting the areas that are currently paying your bills. Wait to experiment with a new revenue stream until you can afford to spend the time elsewhere.

7. Out of all the custom requests you've ever gotten, which one was the most fun to film?

Anything where I get to fuck my own throat and verbally degrade myself.

8. What future vids can your fans look forward to?

A gang bang. I will not let myself leave this industry without shooting a gang bang.

BORN ON FIRE
FEATURING
Mia Maffia

MONTREAL, CANADA

1. How did you start your journey in the adult industry?

I started escorting when I was barely legal, so I've always been in sex work. It was all consensual. I was just a horny slut that wanted pay for the dick I was already sucking.

2. Out of all the places you've visited around the world, which place is your favorite and why?

Canada was fun—it was cold but there were clubs dedicated to male strippers and I LOVE male strippers.

3. What do you love about doing what you do?

All the dick and all the money.

4. Compared to when you began, what are the major changes that have occurred in the adult industry regarding trans performers?

When I first started, porn work was scarce in the UK. Grooby was really the only production company shooting trans girls at the time. It was really hard to find modelling work.

It's great that now with sites like ManyVids performers can create their own opportunities and don't have to rely on producers giving them work.

Me and four of my girlfriends gang-fucked one guy.

5. Please describe the craziest, wildest, sexual experience you've ever had.

There are so many! Erm, earlier this year me and four of my girlfriends gang-fucked one guy. Go on my website MiaMaffia.XXX and see for yourself!

6. If you were to get into a relationship with anyone, what would be the top qualities you'd look for in a partner?

Some who's really rich and dying of old age.

Every shoot you do is going to raise your profile.

7. What are your goals for the next 5 years?

I'm going to work really hard and be the best I can be at whatever I do.

8. Do you have any advice for aspiring trans performers?

Shoot as much as you can. Not all shoots are going to pay buckets of gold, but every shoot you do is going to raise your profile, which in turn will raise your webcam and escort profiles.
